TOMATO MANIA!

White Flower Farm presents the First Annual Tomatomania! at Elm Bank in Boston. This unique event will appeal to tomato enthusiasts from all over the Boston area. Over 75 varieties of tomato plants from heirlooms to hybrids, all fresh from the White Flower Farm greenhouses, will be available for purchase. Tomato guru Scott Daigre will be on hand, helping you choose among the many varieties and answering questions about growing tomatoes for best yield and flavor.

ABOUT SCOTT DAIGRE

Mr. Daigre has a passion for the tastiest Tomatoes, even those with wild shapes and unusual colors. To him, they all have personalities, and he can describe their features off the top of his head. He's the author of Tomatomania!

How to Grow Tomatoes Successfully in Southern California and also is a garden consultant, instructor, and owner of his own garden design business. Don't miss this opportunity to get advice, share tips, or just meet others who love growing tomatoes.
